

Ettore Comi

Director

Ettore Comi is a Director with Quadrant Economics in Washington, D.C. He has over 15 years of consulting experience assisting clients in the areas of valuation, contractual disputes, antitrust, and finance. Mr. Comi specializes in litigation matters, providing economic and financial expertise with a particular emphasis on valuation of businesses, economic damages, and economic issues related to liability. He has consulted on a variety of cases involving discounted cash flow (DCF) valuation models or requiring the analysis and management of large, complex transactional databases.

His experience covers disputes in different countries and in a variety of industries, including chemicals, electricity, mining, oil and gas, telecommunications, transportation, food distribution, real estate, pharmaceutical, hospitality, computer hardware and computer software. Recent assignments have included the quantification of economic damages in high-stakes international investment and commercial arbitration proceedings under the rules of the International Centre for Settlement of Investment Disputes (ICSID), the International Chamber of Commerce (ICC), the United Nations Commission on International Trade Law (UNCITRAL), and the Singapore International Arbitration Centre (SIAC).

Mr. Comi has provided expert testimony in ICSID, ICC, UNCITRAL, and SIAC arbitrations. Every year since 2017, he has been selected among the most highly regarded financial advisory and valuation experts by Who's Who Legal in an independent annual research with clients and peers around the world.

Mr. Comi has a master of business administration from the Wharton School at the University of Pennsylvania, a master's degree in economics from the State University of New York and a bachelor's degree in business and economics from Carlo Cattaneo University in Italy.

Before joining the field of economic consulting, Mr. Comi structured financial products for institutional investors and provided market valuation of equity portfolios for the alternative investments industry in Switzerland.
